About our dispute verification process

This summary shows the revision(s) made to your credit file as a result of the verification we recently completed. If you still question an item, then you may want to contact the source of the information.

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act states that you may:

- request a description of how we verified the information, including the business name and address contacted and the telephone number if reasonably available;
- add a statement disputing the accuracy or completeness of the information; and
- request that we send these results to organizations who have reviewed your credit report in the past two years for employment purposes or six months for any other purpose.

If no information follows, our response appeared on the previous page.

How to read your results

Deleted - This item was removed from your credit report

Remains - This item has been verified as accurate

Updated - A change was made to this item; review this report to view the change. If ownership of the item was disputed, then it was verified as belonging to you.

Reviewed - This item was either updated or deleted; review this report to learn its outcome
